riage if she pays for it."

It is told a Csiro that Mrs. Leiter said to Lord Cromer, the British resi dent, when he inquired about Lord Curzon: "I hope dear George will be a success, as he has married my daugh-

INCRIMINATES HER PASTOR .- In the clerk's office of the Circuit Court at Newport News yesterday, Mrs. Sadie Blythe filed her answer to the petition for a divorce recently filed by her husband, B. G. Blythe, who charged unfaithfulness. In her reply Mrs. Blythe admits the charges, so far as they con cere her relations with Rev. Thomas J. McKay, who, she claims, exercised a special influence over her on account of his position. She denies that she was unfaithful to her marital vows in any other respect, and asks that the court refrain from transfering back to Blythe the property which he gave her, averring that by her economy and good management her husband was enabled to accumulate the property about one-half of which was transferred to ber. She makes no reference to the custody of the children.

What to do Until the Doctor Arrives. It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see hi child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for m to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from the rest of the country. for it from that part of the country.
